At all times material herein, plaintiff Lanette Tingling has worked as a JOS at the Linden/Brooklyn South Job Center, located at 505 Clermont Ave, Brooklyn, New York, 11238. These plaintiffs bring this action on behalf of themselves and the other JOS and AJOS plaintiffs who work or have worked for defendant at all times material herein.

8. Defendant New York City is, among other things, a juridical entity amenable to suit under the FLSA in that it is, and was at all times material hereto, a public agency within the meaning of Section 3(x) of the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 203(x). New York City has a principal office and place of business located at Broadway and Park Row, New York, New York, 10007, and may be served with process by serving the Office of Corporation Counsel, 100 Church Street, New York, 10007.

9. Within the last three years and continuing to date, while working in the position of JOS on behalf of defendant, plaintiffs' job duties are to provide economic support and employment related services to persons in need, to promote individual and family self-sufficiency, as well as various other duties and activities related to serving the citizens of New York City.

JOS Plaintiffs

10. While working as JOS, plaintiffs routinely work over 40 hours a week. JOS are scheduled to work 40 hours a week, Monday through Friday, as their regular schedule, with one hour each day automatically deducted for meal periods. In addition, two to three times a week they work overtime of 2.5 hours or more on their scheduled work days. Further, plaintiffs work overtime shifts of between 4 and 8 hours on Saturdays in those same workweeks.

11. Plaintiffs JOS also come into work before the official start time of their shifts and perform work for which they are not compensated. Plaintiffs JOS also work through their one hour meal periods for which they are not compensated. Plaintiffs JOS also are not compensated for time that they work at the end of their shifts.

12. For example, plaintiff JOS Raphael Oliver routinely works over 40 hours in a work week. When plaintiff Oliver works over 40 hours, defendant fails to properly compensate him for work performed before the official time that his shift starts even when the earlier actual start time is recorded by the defendant's timekeeping system, during his meal periods or after his shifts. Specifically, during the week of October 6-12, 2013, plaintiff Oliver worked a total of 44 hours, excluding his meal periods, but was not compensated for 45 minutes of this time. During the week of January 6-11, 2014, plaintiff Oliver worked a total of 45 hours, not including the time he worked during his meal periods, and he was not compensated for 30 minutes of this time. In addition, during these weeks, plaintiff Oliver performed work during his meal periods for which he was not compensated.

13. Plaintiff JOS Dimuthu Ranasinghe routinely works over 40 hours in a workweek. When plaintiff Ranasinghe works over 40 hours, defendant fails to properly compensate her for work performed before the official start time of her shift, after the official end of her shift or during her meal periods. For example, during the week of April 8-14, 2012, plaintiff Ranasinghe worked a total of 60 hours and 33 minutes, excluding her meal periods, and she was not compensated for 1 hours and 48 minutes of this work time. During the week of March 24-30, 2013, plaintiff Ranasinghe worked a total of 50 hours and 20 minutes, excluding her meal periods, but was not compensated for 35 minutes of this time. In addition, during these weeks, plaintiff Ranasinghe also worked during her meal periods for which she received no compensation.

14. Plaintiff Horng Yu Chou routinely works over 40 hours in a work week. When plaintiff Chou works over 40 hours, defendant fails to properly compensate her for work performed before the official start time of her shift, after the shift officially ended, and during her meal periods. For example, during the week of December 1-7, 2013, plaintiff Chou worked a total of 47 hours and 4 minutes, excluding her meal periods, but was not compensated for 1 hour and 4 minutes of this time. During the week of January 5-11, 2014, plaintiff Chou worked a total of 47 hours and 19 minutes, but was not compensated for 49 minutes of this time. During these weeks, plaintiff Chou also worked during her meal periods for which plaintiff Chou received no compensation.

15. Plaintiff Eliana De La Cruz routinely works over 40 hours in a work week. When plaintiff De La Cruz works over 40 hours, defendant fails to properly compensate her for work occurring before the official time her shift began, after her shift, and during her meal periods. For example, during the week of June 9-15, 2013, plaintiff De La Cruz worked a total of 41 hours and 6 minutes, excluding her meal periods, but was not compensated for 51 minutes of this time. During the week of October 6-12, 2013, a week in which plaintiff De La Cruz was docked 7 minutes for lateness, she worked a total of 40 hours and 29 minutes, excluding her meal periods, but was not compensated for 21 minutes of this time. During these weeks, plaintiff De La Cruz also performed work during her meal periods for which she received no compensation.

16. Plaintiff Katherine Paulino routinely works over 40 hours in a work week. When plaintiff Paulino works over 40 hours, defendant fails to properly compensate her for work performed before the official time her shift began, after her shift, and during her meal periods. For example, during the week of September 15-21, 2013, plaintiff Paulino worked a total of 45 hours and 35 minutes, excluding her meal periods, but was not compensated for 35 minutes of this time. During the week of March 23-29, 2014, plaintiff Paulino worked a total of 45 hours and 33 minutes, excluding her meal periods, but was not compensated for 1 hour and 33 minutes of this time. During these weeks, plaintiff Paulino also performed work during her meal periods for which she received no compensation.

17. Plaintiff Lanette Tingling routinely works over 40 hours in a work week. When plaintiff Tingling works over 40 hours, defendant fails to properly compensate her for work performed before the official time her shift began, after her shift, and during her meal periods. For example, during the week of January 5-11, 2014, plaintiff Tingling worked a total of 55 hours and 50 minutes, excluding her meal periods, but was not compensated for 3 hours and 5 minutes of this time. During the week of February 9-15, 2014, plaintiff Tingling worked a total of 41 hours and 47 minutes, excluding her meal periods, but was not compensated for 1 hours and 17 minutes of this time. During these weeks, plaintiff Tingling also performed work during her meal periods for which she received no compensation.

18. The amounts of uncompensated work time that each JOS works before his or her official start time of each plaintiff JOS's shift and the amount of uncompensated time that each plaintiff works at the end of each of their shifts is captured on defendant's timekeeping system CityTime as "uncompensated hours." The amount of uncompensated time that each plaintiff performs during each plaintiff's meal periods is captured on defendant's computers on which each plaintiff JOS works. Therefore, the amount of uncompensated time each plaintiff JOS has worked in excess of 40 hours a week can be determined through an analysis of defendant's own records and on its computers.

19. Similar to the JOS plaintiffs identified above, each of the other JOS plaintiffs routinely work more than 40 hours in a work week and are denied compensation during those workweeks for work performed before the official start time of their shifts, during meal periods and after their shifts. The precise amount of uncompensated work time each JOS plaintiff performs can also be identified through CityTime and through defendant's computers on which plaintiffs work.

AJOS Plaintiffs

20. Within the last three years and continuing to date, while working in the position of AJOS on behalf of defendant, plaintiffs' job duties are to assist in the day-to-day work performed by JOS employees, to monitor and take action in cases to ensure that participants in certain City public assistance programs are actively engaged in seeking employment and satisfying their obligations, as well as various other duties and activities related to serving the citizens of the City of New York.

21. While working as AJOS, plaintiffs routinely work over 40 hours a week. AJOS are scheduled to work 40 hours a week, Monday through Friday, as their regular schedule, with one hour each day automatically deducted for meal periods. In addition, two to three times a week each AJOS plaintiff works overtime of 2.5 hours or more on their scheduled work days. Further, during these workweeks, plaintiffs work overtime shifts of 4 to 8 hours on Saturdays. Plaintiffs AJOS also are not compensated for time that they work at the end of their shifts.

22. Plaintiff Kevin Pritchett routinely works over 40 hours in a work week in his job as an AJOS. When Pritchett works over 40 hours, defendant fails to properly compensate him for work performed before his shift's official start time, at the end of his shift and during his meal periods. For example, during the week of March 2-8, 2014, Pritchett worked a total of 54 hours and 26 minutes, excluding his meal periods, but was not compensated for 5 hours and 56 minutes of this time. During the week of April 20-26, 2014, plaintiff Pritchett worked a total of 69 hours and 19 minutes, excluding his meal periods, but was not compensated for 6 hours and 49 minutes of this time.

23. Plaintiff Jessica Reyes-Peterson routinely works over 40 hours in a work week in her job as an AJOS. When plaintiff Reyes-Peterson works over 40 hours, defendant fails to properly compensate her for work occurring pre- and/or post-shift or during her meal period in violation of the FLSA. For example, during the week of January 5-11, 2014, plaintiff Reyes-Peterson worked a total of 51 hours and 41 minutes, excluding her meal periods, but was not compensated for 41 minutes of this time. During the week of January 26, 2014 through February 1, 2014, plaintiff Reyes-Peterson worked a total of 49 hours and 17 minutes, excluding her meal periods, but was not compensated for 47 minutes of this time. During these workweeks, plaintiff Reyes-Peterson also performed work during her meal periods for which she was not compensated.

24. Plaintiff Carol Phillips routinely works over 40 hours in a work week in her job as an AJOS. When plaintiff Phillips works over 40 hours, defendant fails to properly compensate her for work occurring pre- and/or post-shift or during her meal period in violation of the FLSA. For example, during the week of January 6-12, 2013, plaintiff Phillips worked a total of 45 hours and 30 minutes, excluding her meal periods, but was not compensated for 1 hour and 15 minutes of this time. During the week of April 14-20, 2013, plaintiff Phillips worked 43 hours and 19 minutes, excluding her meal periods, but was not compensated for 2 hours and 4 minutes of this time. During these workweeks, plaintiff Phillips also performed work during her meal periods for which she was not compensated.

25. The amounts of uncompensated work time that each AJOS works before his or her official start time of his or her shift, and the amount of uncompensated time that each AJOS performs at the end of each plaintiff AJOS's shift is captured on defendant's timekeeping system CityTime as "uncompensated time." The amount of uncompensated time that occurs during each plaintiff AJOS's meal periods is captured on defendant's computers on which each plaintiff AJOS works. Therefore, the amount of uncompensated time each plaintiff AJOS has worked in excess of 40 hours a week can be determined through an analysis of defendant's own records and on its computers.

26. Similar to the AJOS plaintiffs identified above, the other AJOS plaintiffs routinely work more than 40 hours in a work week and are denied compensation during those workweeks for work occurring before the official start time of their shifts, during meal periods and for work time after their shifts. The precise amount of uncompensated work time can also be identified through CityTime (also known as "CitiTime") and through defendant's computers on which plaintiffs work.

Nightshift Differential Pay and the Rate At Which Overtime is Paid

27. When plaintiffs work in the evenings beyond their regular shift times, they are entitled to receive night shift differential pay of ten percent (10%) of their basic rate of pay. In calculating cash overtime payments for plaintiffs, defendant fails to include night shift differential pay in the regular rate of pay at which overtime is paid to the plaintiffs.

*Payment of Compensatory Time at the Rate of
One Hour for One Hour of Overtime Worked*

28. Plaintiffs who work over 40 hours a week who work what the defendant considers to be "approved overtime" that the defendant classifies to be "voluntary" are paid in compensatory time rather than cash. When the plaintiffs are paid in compensatory time rather than cash for overtime work, they are paid one hour of compensatory time for each hour of overtime that is worked, regardless of whether or not the overtime that has been worked is for work hours in excess of 40 hours a week.

Late Payment of Overtime Worked

29. When plaintiffs are paid for overtime compensation in cash, defendant delays the payment of overtime beyond the next pay period for which the plaintiffs are paid for their regular work hours and in compensatory time for their overtime hours. The delay in payment is done either because the defendant's managerial staff has simply failed to transmit purportedly necessary information to payroll that defendant likes to have to pay overtime to plaintiffs, because defendant simply does not want to incur the cost for budgetary reasons in that particular financial quarter (e.g, when employees' pay exceeds a predetermined cap), or for other reasons that are unrelated to defendant's ability to determine the amount of overtime compensation that is owed to the plaintiffs.

COUNT I

FAILURE TO PAY OVERTIME FOR ALL HOURS PLAINTIFFS ARE SUFFERED OR PERMITTED TO WORK IN VIOLATION OF SECTION 7(a) OF THE FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 207(a)

30. Plaintiffs hereby incorporate by reference paragraphs 1 through 29 in their entirety and restate them herein.

31. At all times material herein, during those workweeks in which the JOS and AJOS plaintiffs have worked hours in excess of 40 hours a week, they have performed work activities without compensation before the start of their shifts and after their shifts, all of which is recorded on defendant's timekeeping system CityTime, and also during their meal periods, which is mostly recorded on their assigned computers. Accordingly, as a result of these pay practices, defendant has failed to provide plaintiffs with the rights and protections provided under section 7(a) of the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 207(a).

32. Section 207 of the FLSA requires the payment of overtime compensation to employees who work in excess of the hourly standards set forth therein. In particular, Section 207(a) requires the payment of overtime compensation at the rate of one and one-half times each employee's regular rate of pay for all hours employees are suffered or permitted to work in excess of forty hours per week. Defendant has failed to comply with the overtime pay requirements of the FLSA in the manner outlined herein by failing to compensate plaintiffs for work that they have been suffered or permitted to work before the official start time of their shifts, during their uncompensated meal periods and after the official end time of their shifts.

33. As a result of defendant's willful and purposeful violations of the FLSA, there have become due and owing to the plaintiffs an amount that has not yet been precisely determined. The employment and work records for the plaintiffs are in the exclusive possession, custody and control of the defendant and its public agencies and the plaintiffs are unable to state at this time the exact amount owing to them. Defendant is under a duty imposed by the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 211(c), and various other statutory and regulatory provisions, to maintain and preserve payroll and other employment records with respect to the plaintiffs from which the amount of defendant's liability can be ascertained.

34. Pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), plaintiffs are entitled to recover liquidated damages in an amount equal to their back pay damages for the defendant's failure to pay overtime compensation.

35. Plaintiffs are entitled to recover attorneys' fees and costs under 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

COUNT II

FAILURE TO PROPERLY CALCULATE THE REGULAR RATE OF PAY IN VIOLATION OF SECTION 7 OF THE FLSA

36. Plaintiffs hereby incorporate by reference paragraphs 1 through 35 in their entirety and restate them herein.

37. Section 207(a) of the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 207(a), as well as the regulations of the U.S. Department of Labor, 29 CFR Part 778, et seq., require that all forms of remuneration be included in the rate at which FLSA overtime is paid, with some limited exceptions. Defendant has failed to include certain premium payments such as night shift differential pay that are made in addition to employees' regular pay in the regular rates of pay at which overtime pay is calculated for the plaintiffs as required under the law.

38. Defendant's failure to include night shift differential pay and other forms of additional compensation in plaintiffs' regular rates of pay violate section 7(a) of the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 207(a); 29 C.F.R. § 778.207(b). The failure to include night shift differential pay in plaintiffs' regular rates means that when plaintiffs receive paid overtime for working over 40 hours a week, they are paid at a rate that is below the rate mandated by the FLSA.

39. As a result of the defendant's willful and purposeful violations of the FLSA, there have become due and owing to the plaintiffs an amount that has not yet been precisely determined. The employment and work records for the plaintiffs are in the exclusive possession, custody and control of defendant and its public agencies and the plaintiffs are unable to state at this time the exact amount owing to them. Defendant is under a duty imposed under the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 211(c), and various other statutory and regulatory provisions to maintain and preserve payroll and other employment records with respect to the plaintiffs and other employees similarly situated from which the amount of defendant's liability can be ascertained.

40. Pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), plaintiffs are entitled to recover liquidated damages in an amount equal to their back pay damages for the defendant's failure to pay overtime compensation.

41. Plaintiffs are entitled to recover attorneys' fees and costs under 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

COUNT III

FAILURE TO PAY FLSA OVERTIME IN A TIMELY MANNER BY PAYING FOR OVERTIME WEEKS OR EVEN MONTHS AFTER THE OVERTIME HAS BEEN WORKED

42. Plaintiffs hereby incorporate by reference paragraphs 1 through 41 in their entirety and restate them herein.

43. The FLSA mandates that overtime compensation be paid on the regular pay day for the period in which such workweek ends. Overtime payments under the Act may not be delayed except as reasonably necessary to compute the amount owed and in no event shall such payments be delayed beyond the next payday after such computation can be made. 29 C.F.R. § 778.106. Defendant has violated these basic principles by delaying plaintiffs' overtime payments for working in excess of 40 hours a week by weeks and in some cases months, with such delay not being reasonably necessary to compute calculating plaintiffs' overtime pay, but rather because of a failure by management personnel to approve overtime payments or due to management withholding such payments until the next budgetary quarter.

44. Defendant's failure to pay plaintiffs FLSA overtime pay in a timely manner and its withholding of such overtime payments violates section 7(a) of the FLSA. 29 U.S.C. § 207(a); 29 C.F.R. § 778.106.

45. As a result of the defendant's willful and purposeful violations of the FLSA, there have become due and owing to the plaintiffs an amount that has not yet been precisely determined. The employment and work records for the plaintiffs are in the exclusive possession, custody and control of defendant and its public agencies and the plaintiffs are unable to state at this time the exact amount owing to them, but from these payroll records, plaintiffs will be able to ascertain the precise extent of these violations of section 7(a) of the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 207(a). Defendant is under a duty imposed under the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 211(c), and various other statutory and regulatory provisions to maintain and preserve payroll and other employment records with respect to the plaintiffs and other employees similarly situated from which the amount of defendant's liability can be ascertained.

46. Pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), plaintiffs are entitled to recover liquidated damages in an amount equal to their back pay damages for the defendant's failure to pay overtime compensation.

47. Plaintiffs are entitled to recover attorneys' fees and costs under 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

COUNT IV

FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH THE REQUIREMENT THAT FLSA OVERTIME BE PAID AT THE RATE OF ONE AND ONE-HALF TIMES THE PLAINTIFFS' REGULAR RATES OF PAY AND INSTEAD COMPENSATING PLAINTIFFS WITH STRAIGHT TIME, HOUR FOR HOUR COMPENSATORY TIME

48. Plaintiffs hereby incorporate by reference paragraphs 1 through 47 in their entirety and restate them herein.

49. During the times that plaintiffs have worked in excess of 40 hours in a week, defendant has mandated that all "voluntary overtime" be compensated in compensatory time. Defendant has provided compensatory time at the rate of one hour of compensatory time for each hour of "voluntary overtime" worked, and defendant has done so regardless of whether the overtime hours for which it was compensating the plaintiffs were for work in excess of 40 hours a week.

50. Section 207(o) of the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 207(o), permits public agency employers such as defendant to provide compensatory time in lieu of cash overtime to their employees as payment for overtime hours worked, but only provided that certain conditions are met. See 29 U.S.C. § 207(o); 29 C.F.R. §§ 553.20-28. One of the basic requirements is that employees receive compensatory time at the rate of one and one-half hours of compensatory time for each hour of overtime worked. 29 U.S.C. § 207(o)(1). Defendant has violated section 7(o) of the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. §§ 207(o) by failing and refusing to compensate plaintiffs for their overtime work at the rate of one and one-half hours of compensatory time for each overtime hour worked, and instead compensating them at the rate of one hour of compensatory time for each hour of overtime worked.

51. As a result of the defendant's willful and purposeful violations of the FLSA, there have become due and owing to the plaintiffs an amount that has not yet been precisely determined. The employment and work records for the plaintiffs are in the exclusive possession, custody and control of defendant and its public agencies and the plaintiffs are unable to state at this time the exact amount owing to them, but from these payroll records, plaintiffs will be able to ascertain the precise extent of these violations of section 7(a) of the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 207(a). Defendant are under a duty imposed under the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 211(c), and various other statutory and regulatory provisions to maintain and preserve payroll and other employment records with respect to the plaintiffs and other employees similarly situated from which the amount of defendant's liability can be ascertained.

52. Pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), plaintiffs are entitled to recover liquidated damages in an amount equal to their back pay damages for the defendant's failure to pay overtime compensation.

53. Plaintiffs are entitled to recover attorneys' fees and costs under 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

DEMAND FOR A JURY TRIAL

Pursuant to Rule 38 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, plaintiffs hereby demand that their claims be tried before a jury.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, the plaintiffs pray that this Court:

(a) Enter judgment declaring that the defendant has willfully and wrongfully violated their statutory obligations, and deprived each of the plaintiffs of his and her rights;

(b) Order a complete and accurate accounting of all the compensation to which the plaintiffs are entitled;

(c) Award plaintiffs monetary liquidated damages equal to their unpaid compensation;

- (d) Award plaintiffs interest on their unpaid compensation;
- (e) Award plaintiffs their reasonable attorneys fees to be paid by the defendant, and the costs and disbursements of this action; and
- (f) Grant such other relief as may be just and proper.
